What to Do When a Loved One Passes Away

STEP 1: Notify the Funeral Home

- If passing occurs at a hospital or hospice: Inform staff that Islamic Center of Richmond Funeral Home will handle the arrangements and reach out to us at +1 (866) 347-9262.
- If passing occurs at home: Call 911 to confirm the death and then call us.

STEP 2: Provide Initial Details

During the first call, we'll ask for:

- Deceased's full name, date of passing and the location of the body.
- Preferred Masjid for Salat-ul-Janazah.
- Preferred burial ground.

STEP 3: Complete Required Forms

You'll receive:

- Funeral Intake Form
- Authorization to Release Form

While the forms are being submitted, the funeral home will coordinate with Ghusl volunteers, the Masjid, the cemetery and finalize the funeral schedule.

STEP 4: Ghusl (Washing) & Viewing

- The deceased is transported to the funeral home.
- Family members may attend the Ghusl.
- After shrouding (Kafan), the family may view the deceased from the designated viewing area.

STEP 5: Janazah Prayer & Burial

- The deceased is taken in a hearse to the Masjid for Salat-ul-Janazah prayer.
- Then transported to the cemetery for burial.

STEP 6: Death Certificate

- We handle all vital records with the Virginia Department of Health.
- The death certificate will be ready in 2–3 weeks.
- The family will be contacted when it's available for pickup.

Funeral service charge is $1800*. Burial ground fees are separate and vary depending on the cemetery. *(Optional Services may incur additional charges)
